

Nolan Buzanis

416 – 932 – 0719

nolanbuzanis@gmail.com

linkedin.com/in/nolanbuzanis

www.nolanbuzanis.com

Nolan is a 3rd year Electrical Engineering student with a passion for computing, robotics, and electronics. With a keen focus on learning and development, his interests are varied and include volunteering on a rocket engineering design team and helping the local World Vision chapter. Nolan combines strong academics with resourcefulness and exceptional interpersonal skills to make him a much sought-after team member on group work projects. A voracious reader who also enjoys sports, guitar and piano.

Education

MAY 2015 – MAY 2019

B.A.Sc., Electrical Engineering / Queen's University, Kingston ON

Electives in Mechatronics and Economics

Key Projects: 2nd year team designed vehicle control and navigation of an autonomous, robotic vehicle exploring various sensors, software, and electronics components; Currently developing an amplifier circuit for hands-on project experience in electronics design.

Sponsorship Coordinator, Queen's World Vision Chapter

SEPTEMBER 2017 – MAY 2017

- Gained experience with sponsorship strategies by networking with local businesses

Queen's Rocket Engineering Design Team

OCTOBER 2017 – FEBRUARY 2017

- Member of electrical sub team which designed parachute, payload, and airbrake systems

Experience

OCTOBER 2017 – PRESENT

Studio Supervisor / SparQ Studios - makerspace, Kingston

- Provide assistance to students using machines, tools, or software in the studio
- Collaborate with Exec team to develop new initiatives and uses for the design space

MAY 2017 – AUGUST 2017

Summer IT Intern / Havergal College, Toronto

- Refreshed over 200 student computers and prepared laptops for deployment using Casper Suite
- Assisted users with IT related issues and audio/visual problems

Awards, Certifications, Interests

Duke of Edinburgh Silver Award

National Lifeguard

Standard First Aid & CPR C

JANUARY 2015

Certified JUNE 2014

Certified MAY 2014

Music: Proficient Acoustic Guitarist, Piano Grade 6 (First Class Honours)

Sports: Competitive tennis and hockey, squash, wilderness canoeing and camping